"68"

This is the story of one year at Sharon High and of the people and activities that made it outstanding. For some of us this was our last year, our last football game, our last prom, and our first real commencement. For some of us this was a year of impatience, of waiting and wonder, of adjustment, and of learning. We hope to recount here the sometimes wonderful, sometimes discouraging, sometimes chaotic, but always memorable days at Sharon High.

We must remember, however, that there was more to this year than just excitement and tradition. There was preparation, for yesterday was a preparation for today--today is a preparation for tomorrow.

Carol,

We would like to express our great appreciation for the guidance of our new administrators who are shouldering the responsibility of directing our thoughts, of helping us to cope with today, of giving us fortitude to challenge the problems of tomorrow and of training our minds. Both Mr. William Crowell, former principal of the Junior High, and Mr. Robert Paxton, former High School mathematics teacher, have been warmly received by both faculty and students. We thank them for the fine job they are doing.

Members of the school board also have many difficult tasks. They must carry out the state school laws, set the policies of our school district and plan an educational program hard to surpass. The board heavily determines how our public schools serve our youth and society. How well they do this depends on the insight and understanding of those serving as members. We are deeply indebted to these public-spirited persons for the high standards and new schools they have provided us.

Activities

Yesterday, under the guidance of others, we learned to broaden our interests and develop our ideas.

Today we learn to live and work together creating and building our activities.

Tomorrow we shall apply our creative talents to entertain ourselves and to further community and national interests through larger organizations.

Mirror Staff...

The MIRROR staff, responsible for the publication of our school annual, colorfully illustrates school life in its various phases.

They spend endless hours after school and on Saturdays gathering, editing, and arranging the literary and pictorial portions of the book.

If the '63 MIRROR brings back memories of three eventful years at SHS and revives the Tiger spirit, the staff and its faculty advisor, Mrs. Suzanne Kloss, certainly will have attained their purpose.

Sharon School Dates Back to '71 At Red Central

Sharon High's tradition goes back 91 years to the old Red Central which stood on the site of the present day Sharon Junior High.

This school opened in 1871 and was built at a cost of $20,000. Teachers conducted classes in the third floor of the building. These classes included Latin, German, English, Chemistry, Botany and Math. The superintendent of the old Red Central was W. T. Vincent.

In 1923, the old Red Central closed two teachers, Mary Lynn Dunn and Josephine Kippert. Mary Lynn Dunn also served as principal. The next year the school increased its staff to 11 teachers. The graduating class of 1924 is reported from two to the class of 1925 to five.

The first high school in Sharon was built on the site of the old Red Central. The building was built in 1924. The library of this school consisted of a few books on a shelf in the principal's office. In addition to having classes at South Water, the students also had classes at the Bull Club and on the second floor of the Wallis and Cady building across from The Sharon Herald.

Sharon High School did not participate in sports until about 1901. At this time school sports included football and basketball. The team played at the Fair Grounds and at Bull Farm. Basketball was played at the Bull Club gym.

On April 4, 1922, the school board passed the bond issue of $40,000 to be spent on a new high school. Our present school was completed on April 25, 1923 and on Sept. 2, 1923, the school doors opened for Sharon High students.

The class of 1924, with 115 students, was the first class to graduate from the new school. They held their commencement in the gymnasium. W. D. Gamble served as the school superintendent, and P. A. Jones served as principal. P. A. Jones served the new school for only a short time because of death. C. M. Mauer, his assistant, was made principal.

In 1925, Sharon's football team defeated Farrell, 30-0, a debut that remains a high spot in Sharon sports to this day. Also, in 1926, Sharon High defeated Lower Merion in basketball to win the state championship.

Franklin Roosevelt's recovery program made it possible for the school board to purchase 16 acres of land for the site of a stadium. The stadium was completed in 1933.

On Jan. 4, 1935, the school board granted permission for night football games at the Sharon High Stadium.

One of the most recent changes of the school was the addition of a new gymnasium in 1959. In future years, Sharon High School may alter its appearance and curriculum. Nevertheless, all future students will carry on the traditions we have and will continue to leave behind the same spirit of the first two students, who established the ideals which form S. H. S. personality.

Assembly Marks Veterans Day

Featured in the annual Veterans Day assembly, Nov. 12, were the concert choir, Maquis and Mike and the orchestra.

The concert choir, under the direction of Mr. William Blough, and the orchestra, conducted by Mr. Arthur Reichenthal, opened the program together with "America."

The concert choir continued with the selections "Give us the Girl Who Sings," "You're the One That I Want," and "The Statue of Liberty," by Berlin, Rudolph, and "O Love, My Love of All Nations," by Tchaikovsky.

The highlights of this year's program were three short readings on patriotic themes presented by Maquis and Mike and a talk, "What is Veterans Day?" presented by senior Alan Varrault. Miss Caroline Devault supervised this part of the program.

A method of silence in honor of those Americans who died in battle gave final meaning to our observance of the holiday.

During the program the orchestra played "They Call It America" by Grant-Tinker and "The Star-Spangled Banner."

Orchestra Elects

The Sharon High School Orchestra has elected officers for the 1962-63 school year. Mr. Arthur Reichenthal, conductor of the orchestra, announced that some of the officers are Kathy Frei, librarian, and James Smith, president.

Will Leave School—Elmer Johnson shows off his Santa Claus smile and his familiar figure. Elmer, who is retiring soon, has been a buddy of Sharon High students for more than 16 years.

Elmer to Graduate With Class of 1963

On Nov. 30, one of the most beloved members of the Sharon High maintenance staff will say farewell to the school he has served faithfully since 1946. His name is Elmer Johnson, but to most of the students he is just plain Elmer.

Elmer is a short, stout, jovial old fellow whose well-rounded personality has been the butt of many jokes. In spite of this, he is never too busy to help a friend, and to Elmer everyone in Sharon High School fits this category. In addition to being night watchman for the past 16 years, Elmer has been a second coach of the basketball and football teams during this period.

When Elmer leaves, Sharon High will not be the same. No longer will the prevailing odor of the night single filter from the "Blue Room," his place of abode. Some of the warmth will be gone, will not soon be replaced.

Tri-Hi-Y Sponsors Annual Gathering

On Nov. 18-19-20, the Senior Tri-Hi-Y will hold their annual gathering of alumni and friends. The gathering will be held at the Children's Home in Merion.

The gathering committee, headed by Bob Jolley, chairman, consists of Linda Algeo, Susan Finkbeiner, Shirley Johnston, Linda May, Karen Pich, Karen Robinson and Judy Thompson.

Students may donate canned goods, soups, cereals, dried fruits, cake mixes, jellies, jams or marmalades. These will be collected in the home rooms, donated, and be a happy and a

College Board

What are they? How can I study for them? College Boards are tests given by the College Entrance Examination Board. There are three types of tests, the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT), the Achievement Tests (Apt), and the Verbal Tests (VST). These are given several times a year at each of the United States and the world.

The SAT is a ten-part test designed to measure ability in mathematics and language. The Achievement Tests are designed to measure the student's achievement in fields, i.e., English Composition, Chemistry, Spanish sample tests the student's ability to express him writing.

How may you prepare for these tests? The College Entrance Board suggests, "Observe the world, think about what you see. Read widely and thoughtfully and enthusiastically."

Our advice is get a good night's sleep and come well rested. College Boards are important, but they are not U. S. criteria of college admissions officers. High School grades and teacher's recommendation are still important.

Sharon Hosts Student Teachers Snow, TV Fascinate Nirmala

Nirmala Bodker, an exchange student from India, revealed her impressions of America to GAZETTE reporters during a recent interview.

Nirmala compared her first snow in a blanket of cotton. She remarked, "It's never before. The first day I made snowballs." So far she hasn't been hit by one. Television is also a fascinating new experience for Nirmala. She has chosen Dr. Kildare, as her favorite actor. She enjoys Lucille Ball's comedies but has to admit, however, that TV distracts her from her studies.

Nirmala attends Sharon's football games, but she doesn't understand the action of the players. "They looked like they were all fighting," she commented. Although she doesn't care for football, this does not dampen her enthusiasm for other sports, especially tennis and basketball.

Nirmala found other things in America quite different from those at her home. She was amazed at the size and variety of our modern department stores and supermarkets. She explained that the stores in India consist mainly of small shops. Also, their houses are made of brick and have no stairs. This lack of space is due to the growing population.

and one seldom finds an empty street even at night.

"The food is quite different, too," Nirmala related, "nothing in the same. We eat spicy foods." But she enjoys our traditional food, dress, films and music.

She tells us that rock'n roll music is popular in India, but the boys and girls don't mix as much as they do here. Neither is it a custom for teenagers to smoke, especially the girls.

Nirmala stated that the Indian press gave a true picture of America, but the people were even friendlier than she expected. Nirmala expressed her impression: "All my friends—all these people."

For the next few years, Sharon would benefit almost to the hilt. Now instead of running

Reminder

Seniors! Don't forget the class party tonight in the high school gymnasium from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

The Senior Social Committee, headed by Jim Tidwell and comprised of Louise Wright, Bonnie Finkbeiner, Nirmala Bodker, Janet Huelst, Sue Burbank, John Grockway and Jack Klein, has planned an interesting evening. Plan to attend!

Seven Practice Here

This month Sharon High is host to seven student teachers from area colleges and universities. They are Richard Weber, William Diakie, Kirk Bush, Alan Patterson, Harriet Hite, Frank Moser and John Brand.

While they do their practice teaching, these teachers continue their educational skills with practical knowledge in order to face the difficulties associated with the teaching profession. Student teachers from Youngstown University are Richard Weber and William Diakie. Mr. Weber, a social studies major, teaches economics classes under the supervision of Mr. Herbert Spigelmeyer. Mr. Diakie, also a social studies major, teaches Mr. Donald Bennett's government classes.

Kirk Bush, Alan Patterson and Harriet Hite come to us from Third College. Mrs. Marion Kammere's American History classes have as their student teacher, Mr. Bush, a social studies major. Mr. Patterson, who majored in chemistry, is observing and teaching in Mr. Donald Gault's classes. In the language department, Miss Harriet Hite, majoring in Spanish, is teaching Miss Patricia Wilson's classes.

Frank Moser, from Grove City College, is winning practical music techniques as taught by Mr. Blough.

The Art Department is offering the artistic experience of Mrs. Nina Mangus to an art major, Mr. John Swank, from Edinboro State Teachers' College.

School Open House For Education Week

As part of American Education Week, the Sharon High School faculty held Open House on Tuesday.

With teachers and administrative offices from their conference refreshment school campus.

Speeches and cheers encouraged the Beagle team at a rally before the Sharon-Farrell game last week.

Following an introduction by Bob Thomas, captain of the football team, Mr. Johnny Pope, Sharon Herald sports editor, and Mr. Clifford Smith, assistant coach of the Sharon team, presented their best wishes to both the team and its coaches.

Mr. Smith also acknowledged the senior boys who would play their last game Friday night.

The Farrell Rally Committee, headed by Alan Varrault and Mr. Roger Lewis, faculty adviser, presented a skit depicting the desired outcome of the game.

Those participating were Paul Hamilton, Alan Varrault, Beth Myers, Tekla Javinski and Joe Dyll as the Farrell team; Phyllis Carlson, Billy Leonard, John Larkin, Kathy Loon, Bill Miller, Lou Wittick, Howard Gault and Beth Jolley as the Sharon team; and Dennis Dills, Jerry Bender, Jack Anderson, Gene Vincent, and Harry Forth as the Farrell Band.

The Sharon High School band, under the direction of Mr. Fred Boies, provided musical accompaniment and the Varsity Cheerleaders, headed by Nancy Kahl, led the cheers.

Big Dads Meet Swinging Indians

Agile showers being May flowers: What do May flowers bring? Pilgrims, of course. Yes, in 1926, the Big Dads (Pilgrims) hit the English scene because this real square king, James, by name, was being strong to them.

When they first landed in their new pad, America, they got all shook up because there were no other cats over here that dig their beat.

However, in 1921, a year later, the Big Dads met these real live hipsters, Squanto and Samoset, who taught them how to plant the Colonial (corn) and play the shot role (hunt). After that, they became real cool cats.

Thankful that they had not been swayed by these cats (they could really stay cool), the Big Dads had a real swinge' steak burn. This was like called the First Thanksgiving.

Library Gains Many New Books

Sharon High School library has many new books: both fiction and non-fiction.

For article there are several new books. Two, A Dictionary of Abstract Painting and A Dictionary of Modern Painting, are colorful informative dictionaries.

There are several new biographies. Portrait and Jacqueline Kennedy describe in pictures the life stories of our President and First Lady. Another, My Brother Ernest Hemingway, gives complete information on that great author.

The reference section has three new additions, A Dictionary of American Biography, An Encyclopedia of Religion and Ethics and Grove's Dictionary of Music and Musicians.

Pioneers in Mental Health may help in writing Health reports. It is up-to-date and written by experts in the field of mental health.

One of the new books for fiction-lovers is "The Rose and the Lily," a new book climbing fast on the library lists.

The library has books on any subject imaginable. It's not so heavy; let's see it!

New Gas Heating System To Keep SHS Students Warm

Sharon High officials hope to have a new gas-fired heating system in operation by the end of December. Total cost of the project will be approximately $60,000.

Much of the installation has already been completed, and work is under way in the basement. Outside the school stands the building which will house the new boilers.

It was found necessary to replace the coal-fired boilers because of unsatisfactory conditions. It had been impossible to maintain an even amount of heat, and operating costs had been high.

With the installation of the gas-fired boilers the building will be cleaner and operating costs will be much lower. Only one fireman will operate the gas-fired boilers instead of the three needed to operate the others.

One feature of the new heating system is that the weather can

Master of Magic Entertains School

On Wednesday, October 21, Mr. C. Thomas Maguire, as master of magic, performed throughout the Sharon High District and fascinated viewers with his brilliant techniques of deception.

His show, entitled "Science of Magic," consisted of ingenious scientific paper folding, "mysterious" illusions, original mysteries, and novelty straight-

Gazette Staff-Journalists Of Tomorrow

The GAZETTE, a literary credit to Sharon High School, keeps the Shenango Valley residents well informed on recent activities of the students and faculty. Under the helpful direction of Miss Anna Grace Smith this miniature newspaper is published approximately every five weeks.

Members of this staff can be found snooping in classrooms and corridors attempting "to dig up" the latest scoops.

To become an active member of this group one must have 17 inches of original copy printed.

The Social Committee, under the direction of Mr. Smith organizes and is in charge of all the social affairs connected with Sharon High. Before a Social activity, this group organizes among themselves smaller committees - tickets - invitations - publicity - refreshments - and last but not least - the entertainment. So, in other words, the students themselves handle every phase of social affairs. Leadership is taught to the club members along with responsibility.

"Hello there, welcome to Sharon High," may be the motto of the Hospitality Committee. This friendly and helpful group can make any new student feel at home in S.H.S. With the assistance of Miss Caldwell, they show the newcomer around the school and introduce him to other students and teachers. They do not hold regular meetings as most committees do, but are always on their guard with a friendly smile and a pleasant "hi" to greet our new students.

Tiny

Clair "Tiny" Klopfer, who passed away January 27, 1963 was one of the best known and most highly respected music teachers in the Sharon school system. Tiny will be remembered by the many students who were under his direction throughout the years because he never lost patience or permitted them to give up; he instilled in his students not only a love for music but faith in their own abilities.

Not long ago Tiny was presented a plaque in recognition of the many years that he served the music department of our schools. For his unfailing loyalty to music and for the encouragement he gave the youth of our valley Tiny Klopfer will be dearly held in the hearts and memories of all who knew him.

Stage Crew And Audio-Visual Aids--Adds Interest To Classes And Assemblies

Audio Visual Aids--Through the guidance of Mr. Marks, the boys of the audio-visual aids department maintain tip-top condition of the projectors, screens, and other equipment.

While the audience is applauding the performance just given by a speaker, a musical group, a senior play, or what ever it might be, the boys behind the scenes have a warm glow in their hearts because they know they helped. Under the direction of Mr. Holt these boys work endlessly to prepare the stage. The stage crew deserves our applause too.

This group of girls is composed of select sophomores, juniors, and seniors who are chosen for their athletic ability. Their main function under the guidance of Miss Grimenstein and Mrs. Bailey, is aiding in physical education classes. A leader must put in approximately 35 activity periods as a junior and sophomore and 20 periods as a senior towards developing their skills. For their three years of service the girls receive a blazer and an emblem.

This year the girls sold programs at the football and basketball games, ribbons, and buttons to encourage school spirit. They also sponsored a rally and chartered a bus to Slippery Rock to see a gymnastic event.

PAT CAVE

The varsity cheerleaders under the supervision of Miss Grimenstein play a vital roll in good school spirit. These energetic girls made countless hoops, banners, and posters and could be seen in the early hours of every game morning putting them up. For their tireless work the girls receive letter sweaters at an award assembly in March.

Basketball Season 1962-63

Coach Bud Laycock, Assistant Coach, Donald Bennett, together with the Sharon High Tiger basketball players, turned out a winning season this year by completing a 15-7 record. Playing well in the pre-season games, the Tigers won 6 and lost 2, dropping one to Sharpsville 35-51 and the other to Youngstown South 55-59. In pre-league games, Thomas and Wallace, two of our starting Seniors, were hampered by injuries.

Starting off the league games by losing two in a row, the first to Ellwood City 49-53 and the second to Aliquippa 40-42, the Tigers, never losing spirit, finished out the league games with a 7-5 record. Hearty congratulations go to the coaches and to the team.

Observation from the bench.

Confronted with a comparatively light squad, Coach Razzano guided the Sharon High Tigers to another very fine season. Substituting speed and agility for weight, the Tigers compiled a record of 5-4-1. Much praise and congratulations go to Coach Razzano, his fine coaching staff and to the Tigers of the 1962 football season.

Yesterday the foundations of learning were laid.

Today these foundations are being built upon.

Tomorrow a structure of understanding and tolerance will be erected on those foundations. Thus was yesterday a preparation for today and today a preparation for tomorrow.

Senior Class Officers

We, the graduating Class of 1963, have a great and difficult task before us. We must continue and guide for the world. We must be the world's leaders. In order to succeed in this task, we, as individuals and as a nation, must conquer the challenges of life, seek opportunity, and give our best effort in what ever we engage.

It is our duty, each and every one of us, to strive to make our world a better dwelling place for mankind. Therefore we must meet the challenges of life squarely and face them wherever we might find these challenges. Whether it is in the mill, in the laboratory, the classroom, or the home, we must do our best to better the lives of mankind.

In order to meet life's challenges successfully, we must seek opportunity--not security. We must want to take calculated risks; to dream and to build, to fail and to succeed. This is the only way in which mankind advances. This is the only way in which mankind accomplishes anything.

After we have grasped opportunity, we must strive to give our best towards conquering life's challenges. We shall only be successful in our conquest if we strive to give our best at all times. If we give one-hundred percent of ourselves to every task, complete that task to the best of our ability, and march on to greater challenges, then we cannot fail.

We, the graduating Class of 1963, will meet with great and difficult tasks. We cannot fail. We will not fail.

Sincerely,
Jack Bingham

In Memoriam

MY DEAD

I cannot think of them as dead
Who walk with me no more;
Along the path of life I tread
They have but gone before.

The Father's house is mansioned fair
Beyond my vision dim;
All souls are his, and here or there
Are living unto him.

And still their silent ministry
Within my heart hath place,
As when on earth they walked with me
And met me face to face.

Their lives are made forever mine;
What they to me have been
Hath left henceforth its seal and sign
Engraven deep within.

Mine are they by an ownership
Nor time nor death can free;
For God hath given to Love to keep
Its own eternally.

Senior Class Play

The Class of '63 presented John Patrick's "The Curious Savage" to more than 800 in the high school auditorium on January 15. It is the story of an eccentric woman and her greedy stepchildren who have her committed to a private institution called "The Cloisters" in order to gain control of her money. It is here while acquainting herself with the warm and gentle inmates, that Mrs. Savage realizes the great contrast between the wholesome people in the institution and the pompous, greedy people of the outside world.

Director, Miss Patricia Wilson, whipped the play into a higher level of drama with excellent and truly professional performances by the entire cast.

ABOVE: "...as the curtain came down the jury whispered-'Not Guilty'." BELOW: "Give me that bear!!" FAR BELOW: "Why this is simply a madhouse!"

"Fire!!!"

Informals

Yesterday

Yesterday under the guidance of our parents and others we learned to play, to have fun, and to let ourselves run free in a make-believe world of our own.

Today

Today we are using our early lessons of fun. These "informal" times are good because we can let ourselves go and really enjoy some of the nicer pleasures of life.

Tomorrow

The Mirror Staff could not begin to predict where the informals of tomorrow will be taken; all we can do is generalize the places where they might be. We hope that the times we have joked and kidded around in High School will be a valuable asset for us to relieve the tensions and pressures of our fast moving world. Thus was yesterday a preparation for today and today a preparation for tomorrow.

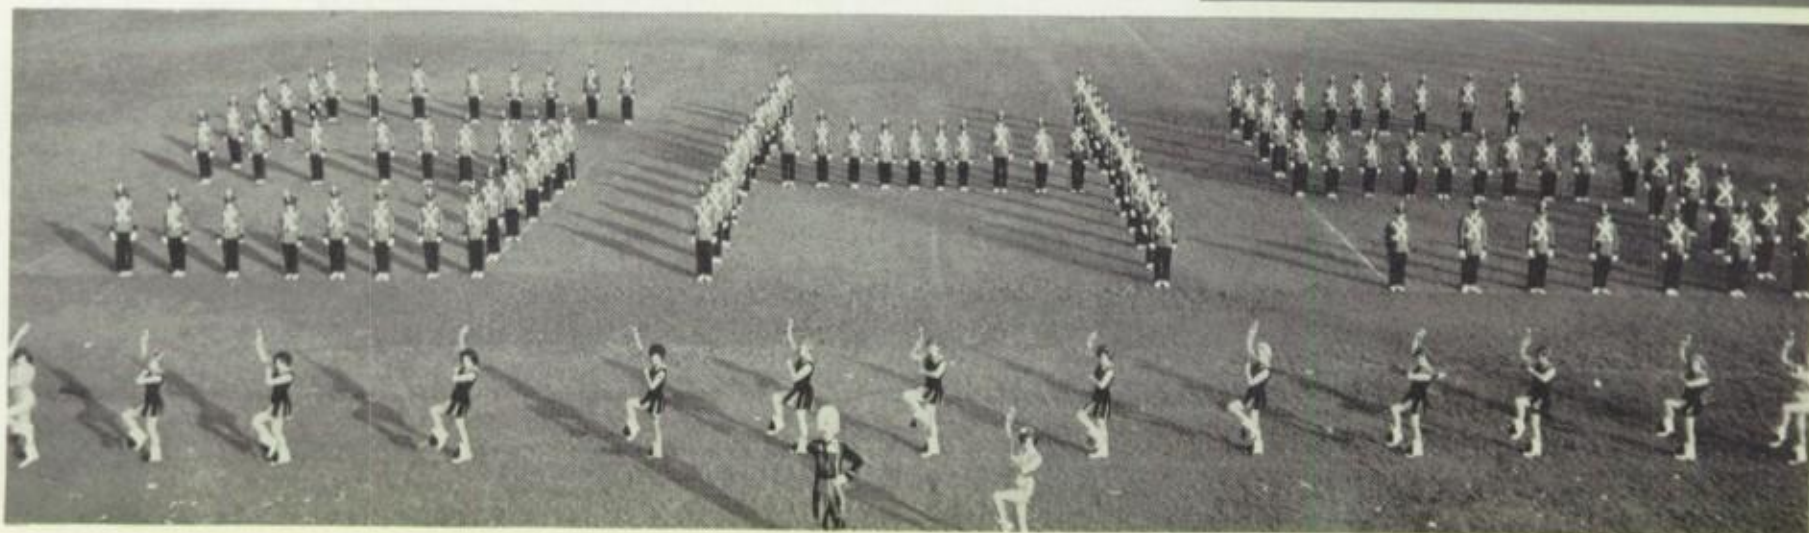

For some of us informals might be taken at a gas station or at a school.

And for still others they might be taken in the armed services or in a plant. . .

. . .or on a college campus or maybe even in the White House!!

But wherever we go we will . . .
